3Q26 preview: inline quarter; Eyes on AI, macro and new games

We model an inline 3Q26 with 7% YoY topline and 20% YoY adj. operating profit (10.0% adj. OPM). We estimate mobile game, online ad and VAS revenue to post YoY changes of -6%, 20% and 5% respectively. We deem key market attention of 2027E profit will be primarily driven by macro, AI investments and new games' performances. We currently forecast RMB4.0bn adj. operating profit (35% YoY) mainly driven by outperformed 21% YoY mobile game, 16% YoY online ad and 11% YoY total opex in 2027. Maintain BUY but cut our PEG based TP to US$24.0/ HK$191.0 with estimated 2025-28E adj. net profit CAGR of 26%.

Key Factors for Rating

- Macro being N-T ad overhang; Eyes on AI investments and new game performances. We expect relatively conservative online ad across the coming quarters beginning 4Q26 primarily due to cautious consumption-related advertisers, especially eC platforms on tepid macro, while other core ad categories remain resilient. For game, we expect at least 4 new pipelines will be publically released domestically till end 2027, including "San Wang" (est. end 4Q26), "RO3" (est. mid to late 2027), "The Ravages of Time" (est. end 2027) and "Mistbound" (est. end 2027). We expect newly launched global game "Lumi Master" to progress well, with estimated first year annual grossing meeting our expectation of RMB600m. For AI, we see Co. continues to execute its focused, disciplined and committed strategies to unleash efficiency gains. Thus, we nudge down our FY2026-28E topline estimates by 1% due to 2-5% ad forecasts cut partially offset by 2-5% increase in game forecasts. We also raise our R&D estimates mainly to reflect our very early stage AI investment assumptions for 2027 and 2028, together leading to 4-10% cut of FY2026-28E adj. EPADS forecasts.
- 3Q26 preview: inline quarter. We model total revenue to grow 7% YoY to RMB8.2bn, in line with consensus. Mobile game revenue will decrease by -6% YoY/+2% QoQ to RMB1.4bn. Online ad revenue will jump 20% YoY to RMB3.1bn. VAS revenue will edge up 5% YoY to RMB3.2bn. Adj. operating profit will grow 20% YoY to RMB823m, leading to 10.0% adj. OPM (vs. 9.0% in 3Q25 and 8.8% in 2Q26). Forecasted adj. NPM of 10.6% slightly beat streets' expectation of 10.0%.

Key Risks for Rating

- Downside: (i) slower-than-expected macro recovery; ii) ineffective monetisation; (iii) content creator and user engagement; (iv) content supply and quality; and (vi) regulations on games, streaming, advertising, data collection, taxation, etc.

Valuation

- Maintain BUY but cut our PEG based TP to US$24.0/ HK191.0, derived from unchanged 0.9x 2026E PEG and trimmed 26% (from 30% previously) 2025-28E adj. net profit CAGR, and slightly trimmed US$1.03 2026E adj. EPADS. This implies 22x/ 17x/ 13x FY2026/27/28E adj. PER.
