Capex Guidance Raised, GPM Continued Rising

Huatai Research | Quarterly Results Review

28 October 2026 | China (Mainland) | Semiconductor

JCET Group (JCET) has reported 3Q26 revenue of RMB11,425mn (+13.53% YoY, +10.32% QoQ), a GPM of 17.48% (+3.23pp YoY, +1.80pp QoQ), an attributable net profit (NP) of RMB773mn (+59.99% YoY, +39.38% QoQ), and a recurring NP of RMB753mn (+117.43% YoY). For 9M26, revenue was RMB30,952mn (+7.96% YoY), the attributable NP was RMB1,617mn (+69.58% YoY), and the recurring NP was RMB1,561mn (+99.17% YoY). On the same day, the company announced a plan to raise its 2026 investment budget from RMB11.01bn to RMB18.20bn. We expect the upward capex revision to accelerate advanced packaging capacity expansion. Maintain BUY.

3Q26: GPM rose by 1.8pp QoQ, recurring NP doubled YoY

According to its 3Q26 report, rapid demand growth from AI infrastructure and on-device applications, alongside the supply localization trend, drove sustained order growth and kept capacity utilization at high levels. For 9M26, computing electronics accounted for 30.9% of revenue and grew by 54% YoY, while automotive electronics accounted for 11.3% of revenue and grew by 30% YoY, with both accelerating from 1H26. For 3Q26, the GPM was 17.48%, up by 3.23pp YoY and 1.80pp QoQ, which we attribute mainly to a higher share of high value-added products, high utilization rates, and effective cost control. The R&D expense ratio fell by 0.54pp YoY to 4.92%, while the financial expense ratio rose by 0.67pp YoY to 1.32%. GPM expansion lifted the 3Q26 recurring NP by 117.43% YoY, and the attributable NPM rose by 1.96pp YoY to 6.76%.

Fixed asset investment plan raised sharply to RMB17.3bn

According to its board resolution announcement, the company plans to raise its 2026 fixed asset investment from RMB9.98bn to RMB17.31bn (+73.4%). According to its 3Q26 report, capacity utilization stayed high in 9M26, computing electronics revenue grew by 54% YoY, and inventories/contract liabilities at end-3Q26 rose by 61.60/18.06% vs the beginning of 2026, indicating ample industry demand and order backlog in our view. For 9M26, cash paid for the acquisition of long-term assets was RMB8,891mn (+104.05% YoY), while the GPM still rose by 2.26pp YoY, pointing to improved profitability amid a favorable industry supply-demand landscape. We think that higher utilization and an optimized product mix have absorbed the incremental depreciation. As new capacity tilts towards high value-added advanced packaging, we expect the company's revenue mix and profitability to improve.

AI drives strong advanced packaging demand

We expect AI compute demand to keep driving advanced packaging capacity expansion. According to Yole Group, the global advanced packaging market is expected to reach about USD62bn in 2026 (+16.8% YoY); according to TrendForce, global AI server shipments are expected to grow by about 28% YoY in 2026. According to ChipInsights, the company ranked third globally and first in the Chinese mainland by OSAT revenue in 2025. In September 2026, the company disclosed a private placement plan to raise up to RMB6.5bn for capacity expansion projects in high-performance computing advanced packaging, wafer-level packaging, and memory packaging and testing, with the maximum number of shares to be issued equivalent to about 7.15% of total share capital. We think that the proceeds are closely aligned with AI compute and memory demand, and the placement, once completed, is set to fund the expansion and accelerate the release of high value-added capacity.

Target price: RMB81.78, maintain BUY

Given the continued QoQ GPM improvement in 3Q26 and the upward capex revision accelerating the commissioning of advanced packaging capacity, we raise our 2026/2027/2028 attributable NP forecasts by 6.6/15.5/13.5% to RMB2,447/3,108/3,559mn, with EPS of RMB1.37/1.74/1.99. As we expect the advanced packaging capacity tied to the revised capex to be released gradually from 2027, we roll our valuation basis forward to 2027. To reflect the company's leadership in advanced packaging, its upward capex revision, and its strengthening first-mover edges in areas such as 2.5D and CPO, we value the stock at 47.0x 2027E PE, above its peers' average of 30.8x on Wind consensus. We lower our target price to RMB81.78 (previous: RMB89.60, based on 70.0x 2026E PE) amid a sector-wide de-rating. Maintain BUY.

Risks: weaker-than-expected business climate in the packaging and testing industry, slower-than-expected development of new technologies and products, slower-than-expected capacity expansion and ramp-up.
