Compelling durability win over pembro/chemo in 1L PD-L1 negative NSCLC: At ESMO2026 (LBA66), Kelun Biotech presented the detailed data of the China ph3 OptiTROP-Lung06 trial (sac-TMT/pembro vs. pembro/chemo in 1L AGA(-) nsq-NSCLC with PD-L1 TPS<1%, N=455), demonstrating compelling durability superiority of sac-TMT/pembro over the well-recognized pembro/chemo in a head-to-head manner with: 1) mPFS of 15m vs. 5.7m, with HR of 0.49 (95% CI 0.36-0.65; p<0.0001). The mPFS of 15m was above our 9-12m expectation, bringing to the level of PD-L1 1-49%/50% population, with the caveat of relatively short follow-up (median 9.7m) and censorship impact (multiple censorship between 12-13m at K-M curve, 12m PFS rate of 51% vs. 23%); 2) preliminary OS HR of 0.58 (95% CI 0.38-0.88), with sac-TMT progressed patients still able to benefit from Pt-based therapy in subsequent treatment (40% vs. 15% in control arm); 3) though ORR was similar (50% vs. 47%), sac-TMT arm showed deeper (29% vs. 17% with 50+% tumor shrinkage) and more durable responses (nearly doubled mDOR, 13.6m vs. 6.8m; HR 0.47).

Meaningfully improved safety prompted sac-TMT as the ADC backbone: Compared to chemo in the pembro-based combo, sac-TMT had lower G3+ TEAE (48% vs. 61%) and meaningfully better tolerability in dose reduction and discontinuation. For AE of special interest, only 2% G3+ stomatitis observed (vs. 5% in Lung05), and no G3+ ocular tox observed. In addition, adding sac-TMT to pembro didn't increase IO-related adverse events, e.g. ILD; and sac-TMT replacing chemo provided easier to manage blood tox (e.g. lower prevalence of G3+ platelet decrease). Together with the data from Lung05 trial, we view the safety profile as reassuring for sac-TMT/pembro combo providing scope to replace the chemo/pembro combo in 1L setting. Along with the significant durability benefit, we believe the Lung05/06 data could position sac-TMT as the ADC backbone in future 1L treatment.

A key data point for potential global ph3 trials in 1L PD-L1 1-49% NSCLC: Recall that the core debate on the KEYNOTE-189/407 population is whether sac-TMT/IO can secure significant survival superiority over pembro/chemo in a global head-to-head setting. Lung06 provides direct support that the sac-TMT/pembro combo is superior to pembro/chemo in PD-L1 TPS<1% population, and we expect the TPS 1-49% population should have at least a similar benefit. While expecting more discussions on the China-to-Global data translatability, we view the Lung06 success as a key de-risking step for MSD's global ph3 plan in this population, and expect MSD management to provide more color on the trial design, particularly with regards to the potential upgrade to PD-1/VEGF in the IO arm. It is also worth noting that company mgmt already filed sBLA in China based on Lung06 study, and is discussing with the China regulator a potential all-comer label in 1L NSCLC regardless of PD-L1 expression level.

We have a Buy rating on Kelun Biotech. Our 12-m TP of HK$581.20 is based on a risk-adjusted DCF methodology assuming: 1) 11% discount rate; 2) 3% terminal growth rate; and 3) probability of success (PoS) based on industry average success rates in different stages and adjustments based on available clinical data. Key risks: 1) R&D risks in developing new indications and future ADCs; 2) increasingly heated competition in ADC field; 3) limited commercial manufacturing and sales track record; 4) challenges in talent competition; and 5) alliance risks in partnership.

Kelun Biotech is a clinical-stage biotech company focused on developing and commercializing differentiated antibody drug conjugates (ADCs) for global patients. We believe Kelun Biotech is well-positioned to grow into a meaningful global ADC player with 1) differentiated late-stage ADCs; 2) deep R&D know-how driving pipeline expansion; and 3) extensive collaborations with MSD for global market access (3 clinical stage and 4 pre-clinical assets, and MSD as a top shareholder) and Kelun Pharma (the parent company) for China commercialization. We expect SKB264 (TROP2 ADC) to be the key driver of Kelun Biotech's future growth given: 1) the broad spectrum of indications where TROP2 has over-expression (e.g., BC/NSCLC/UC/GC), 2) the unique drug design of SKB264 could potentially deliver clinical benefits over TROP2 ADC peers as illustrated in early encouraging data, and 3) the strong leverage of MSD's expertise and network in the global market to drive clinical development and commercialization. We are Buy rated. Key risks: 1) R&D risks in developing new indications and future ADCs; 2) increasingly heated competition in ADC field; 3) limited commercial manufacturing and sales track record; 4) challenges in talent competition; and 5) alliance risks in partnership.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html.

The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.

Fluctuations in exchange rates could have adverse effects on the value or price of, or income derived from, certain investments.

Certain transactions, including those involving futures, options, and other derivatives, give rise to substantial risk and are not suitable for all investors. Investors should review current options and futures disclosure documents which are available from Goldman Sachs sales representatives or at https://www.theocc.com/about/publications/character-risks.jsp and https://www.goldmansachs.com/disclosures/cftc_fcm_disclosures. Transaction costs may be significant in option strategies calling for multiple purchase and sales of options such as spreads. Supporting documentation will be supplied upon request.

Differing Levels of Service provided by Global Investment Research: The level and types of services provided to you by Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research may vary as compared to that provided to internal and other external clients of GS, depending on various factors including your individual preferences as to the frequency and manner of receiving communication, your risk profile and investment focus and perspective (e.g., marketwide, sector specific, long term, short term), the size and scope of your overall client relationship with GS, and legal and regulatory constraints. As an example, certain clients may request to receive notifications when research on specific securities is published, and certain clients may request that specific data underlying analysts' fundamental analysis available on our internal client websites be delivered to them electronically through data feeds or otherwise. No change to an analyst's fundamental research views (e.g., ratings, price targets, or material changes to earnings estimates for equity securities), will be communicated to any client prior to inclusion of such information in a research report broadly disseminated through electronic publication to our internal client websites or through other means, as necessary, to all clients who are entitled to receive such reports.

All research reports are disseminated and available to all clients simultaneously through electronic publication to our internal client websites. Not all research content is redistributed to our clients or available to third-party aggregators, nor is Goldman Sachs responsible for the redistribution of our research by third party aggregators. For research, models or other data related to one or more securities, markets or asset classes (including related services) that may be available to you, please contact your GS representative or go to https://research.gs.com.

Disclosure information is also available at https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html or from Research Compliance, 200 West Street, New York, NY 10282.
