Scores on the Doors: oil 72.7%, US stocks 11.9%, global stocks 8.7%, US dollar 3.4%, cash 3.0%, HY bonds -0.9%, IG -2.2%, govt bonds -3.0%, gold -6.9%, bitcoin -7.1% YTD.

Zeitgeist: "Worst thing that could happen to this bull move in Treasuries is a recession."

Zeitgeist: "If I bought a cemetery, people would stop dying," client on being long China.

The Biggest Picture: China stocks (CSI 300) -20% since June led by tech (-41% - Chart 3); stocks down, yields down (record low 1.6%), as currency appreciates (CNYUSD 4-year high) classic deflation combo...consumer/investor buyer strike as China property bleeds (Chart 4); global EPS risk is China exports deflation (exports up 36% YoY, high-tech exports up 63% YoY – Chart 2).

Tale of the Tape: US mid cap MDY above $666, small cap IJR >$137, global financials IXG >$125 says macro fine, Oct risk-off just tech de-rating in tightening cycle, NDX holds 28k; but growth "tells" breakdown with tech (MAGS <$70, TSM <$400) EPS downward revisions, allocation to tech/stocks too high (investors most OW tech since Aug'20 in BofA Oct FMS); note new all-time highs in BRK...value>growth rotation.

The Price is Right: secular contrarian would be adding bonds...negative long-run returns great entry points for stocks in '39, '74, '09, for commodities in '33, '18; in '26 US Treasury long-run returns worst in past 100 years (Chart 5); "sell hubris, buy humiliation", we add to "peak yield" plays, e.g., small cap, REITs, utilities, consumer discretionary (note capitulatory outflows from utility & discretionary funds this week, 2nd largest on record).

Chart 2: Global EPS risk is China exports deflation (high-tech exports up 63% YoY)

Weekly Flows: $55.6bn to stocks, $28.8bn to cash, $12.1bn to bonds, $2.6bn to gold, $0.2bn to crypto.

Flows to Know:

- Treasuries: $5.4bn inflow, 17th week of inflows,
- Japan equities: $6.0bn inflow, largest since Apr'26,
- China equities: $17.0bn inflow, largest since Jul'26
- Korea equities: $5.8bn inflow, largest since Jul'26,
- Tech: $18.8bn inflow, largest since Jul'26 (Chart 13),
- Consumer: $2.1bn outflow, largest since Feb'14 (2nd largest ever - Chart 14),
- Utilities: $1.6bn outflow, largest since Mar'15 (2nd largest ever),
- Energy: $1.1bn inflow, largest since Apr'26.

BofA Private Clients: $4.6tn AUM...65.9% stocks, 17.4% bonds, 9.4% cash; equity ETF share count rose 0.3% in past week, up 8.3% YTD; in past 4 weeks, private clients buying municipal bond, industrials, healthcare ETFs, and selling staples, EM debt, consumer discretionary ETFs.

BofA Bull & Bear Indicator: dips to 7.2 from 7.4 driven by weak global stock index breadth, bearish hedge fund positioning in oil & S&P 500 futures, wider junk bond spreads, partially offset by strong equity inflows; Bull & Bear Indicator in neutral territory in autumn after "extreme bull" readings all summer; "old" Bull & Bear Indicator up to 5.3 from 5.1 last week (see BofA Bull & Bear Indicator report).

BofA Breadth Rule: net 30% of global equity market indices currently "oversold" (trading below 50-day & 200-day moving averages); faithful contrarian "buy" signal triggered when net 88% markets trading <50dma/200dma (needs US, Taiwan, Brazil equity indices to fall 5-10% from current levels).

Events, dear boy, events:

- Oct 25th: Brazil election (Polymarket odds 78% Bolsonaro, 22% Lula, per Bloomberg),
- Oct 27th: Israel election (48% Eizenkot, 28% Netanyahu),
- Oct 28th: FOMC (7% prob of hike...consensus thinks no hikes = steeper yield curve),
- Oct 28th: UK budget (must keep UK 30-year gilt yield <6%), MSFT/GOOG earnings (must keep MAGS >$70),
- Oct 29th: ECB (1% hike prob...watch France-Germany 180bps bond spread – Chart 6),
- Oct 30th: BoJ (3% prob of hike...JPY 160 remains key level),
- Nov 2nd: US ISM (needs to rise >56/57 to corroborate "boom" narrative),
- Nov 3rd: US midterms (Polymarket odds now 68% DEM sweep vs. 28% DEM House/GOP Senate, per Bloomberg),
- Nov 18th: APEC summit Shenzhen (Xi, Trump, Putin all attending).

View: we stay tactically risk-off until mid-Nov, expect down-in-yields (GT30 toward 5%), down-in-stocks, down-in US dollar (DXY dips below 100) trade until a. midterm DEM sweep fully priced-in (DEM sweep EPS -ve...end of lower tax/regulation regime + Trump less able to coerce resources & capital into US-China AI priority), b. ECB/France govt stop rout in French bonds/reverse surge in France-Germany bond spread, c. AI capex cut or extreme equity issuance announcement (think Boeing 2024) causes peak in AI hyperscaler debt spreads; near-term upside risk = US announces Russia/Ukraine/Iran peace deals collapsing oil price by $10-20/bbl; near-term downside risk = hyperscaler bond spreads surge >200bps (Chart 9), investors deleverage on shadow banking credit event risk.

2027...bubble, breadth, bust: three scenarios for 2027 are AI bubble, Goldilocks bull broadening of stock markets, deflationary bust; case for bubble is AI = railroads (Chart 7), unprecedented US government backstop of AI (higher stocks/bonds = path to victory over China in AI war), Gen Z/Gen X structural buy-the-dip ethos; case for breadth is consensus forecasting 40bps drop in UST yields & 15% SPX EPS growth in '27 and Goldilocks unlocks value in small/mid-caps (on 15x PE), SPX ex. AI (<20x PE); case for bust = railroads had three 30-50% drawdowns during late-1800s bull (Chart 8), bonds end booms/bubbles and credit tightening to cut $1.2tn AI hyperscaler '27 capex forecast, no AI boom = no boom (unless oil down $30bbl, yields down -100-150bps, China stimulus)...downward revisions to '27 forecasts of 5% US nominal GDP & 43% global tech EPS (after 92% in '26 - Charts 10 & 11); next big entry point for risk assets comes when policy makers forced to ease financial conditions and once "fear" more visible...we think consensus conviction in bubble (50% of investors in BofA Oct FMS predicted "no landing") and breadth scenarios (40% predicted "soft landing") both too high, and fear of "hard landing" bust (6% in Oct FMS) too low.

Disclaimer: The indicators identified above as the BofA Bull & Bear Indicator, MVP Model, BofA Global Breadth Rule, BofA EM Flow Trading Rule, BofA Global Flow Trading Rule, BofA Global FMS Macro Indicator, BofA Global FMS Cash Rule, Global Wave, Sell-Side Indicator, and Global Financial Stress Indicator are intended to be indicative metrics only and may not be used for reference purposes or as a measure of performance for any financial instrument or contract, or otherwise relied upon by third parties for any other purpose, without the prior written consent of BofA Global Research. These indicators were not created to act as a benchmark.
The analysis of the BofA Bull & Bear Indicator in this report is back-tested and does not represent the actual performance of any account or fund. Back-tested performance depicts the hypothetical back-tested performance of a particular strategy over the time period indicated. In future periods, market and economic conditions will differ and the same strategy will not necessarily produce the same results. No representation is being made that any actual portfolio is likely to have achieved returns similar to those shown herein. In fact, there are frequently sharp differences between back-tested returns and the actual results realized in the actual management of a portfolio. Back-tested performance results are created by applying an investment strategy or methodology to historical data and attempts to give an indication as to how a strategy might have performed during a certain period in the past if the product had been in existence during such time. Back-tested results have inherent limitations including the fact that they are calculated with the full benefit of hindsight, which allows the security selection methodology to be adjusted to maximize the returns. Further, the results shown do not reflect actual trading or the impact that material economic and market factors might have had on a portfolio manager's decision-making under actual circumstances. Back-tested returns do not reflect advisory fees, trading costs, or other fees or expenses.
