Scores on the Doors: oil 58.8%, global stocks 8.8%, US stocks 7.4%, US dollar 3.2%, cash 3.2%, HY bonds -0.1%, IG -1.4%, govt bonds -2.0%, gold -5.3%, bitcoin -13.0% YTD.

Zeitgeist: "My base case now is AI bust, stocks cause recession, then fiscal crisis. But my predictions mean squat right now and I could be buying chip stocks in another hour."

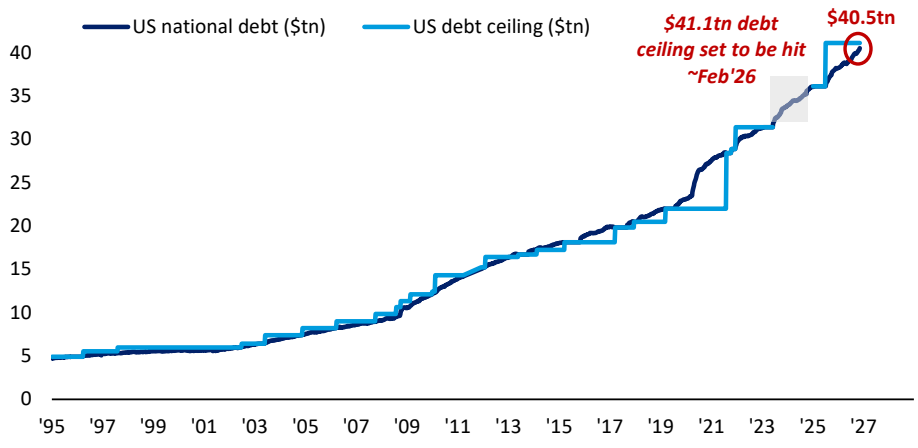

Zeitgeist: "Should Nvidia be covered in 2027 by a tech analyst or a financials analyst?"

Tale of the Tape: we stay risk-off until central bank rate hikes end (41 past 6 months), 10-year UST yield <4.5%, oil <$80/bbl to reverse tightening of financial conditions; ominous "double-top" in SPW (Chart 3) and no one talking "big top", but if Nov CPI, payroll data weak, then Dec Fed/ECB/BoJ hikes = last hikes, risk assets start year-end rally @ Thanksgiving.

The Price is Right: DEM tsunami...peak Trump/greed/AI capex/K-shape consumer...why NDX -15% past month, tech leaders broke...NVDA (funds everything) <$200, TSM (sees everything) <$400, MAGS (controls everything) <$70; but so long as recession odds stay low (banks IXG hold $125, mid-caps MDY $666, junk bonds JNK $92) SPX holds >7k, risk rotates (tech bonds, Europe, China, consumer...), no retreat.

The Biggest Picture: buy gold...Jan 3rd new Congress sworn in, Feb 1st US hits $41.1tn debt ceiling (Chart 2 – on current 12-month run rate); gold price rose 12% & 17% in 3 months prior to debt ceilings causing political games-of-chicken in 2011 & 2023.

733 days to go: 2028 US Presidential election…Ossoff (28% – Table 1) leading pack of DEM nominees, Vance (35%) leading in GOP; markets a discounting mechanism… "Bro Billionaire" stocks peaked in Oct'25, since inauguration (up 18%) now underperforming Trump "Base" (small cap up 21% – Chart 4).

Oh, no you don't: Wall St summer bull convictions were "no landing", "no hike", "no cut", "no sweep"; per BofA Global FMS in July 7/10 investors said no Fed hike before midterms, in Aug 7/10 said no DEM sweep, in Sept 8/10 said no cut coming in AI capex, in Oct FMS investors most OW global tech sector since Aug'20; last bull conviction standing = expectations of "boom" (highest since Feb'22 in FMS).

No DEM sweep: risk assets hit by DEM tsunami as signals electoral shift from populist capitalism to populist socialism, next big direction tax/regulation up not down (EPS -ve), '27 policies to improve affordability/redistribute wealth challenge K-shape consumer boom, AI capex boom, stocks "too big to fail" Wall St zeitgeist, and loss of political capital = less ability for Trump to coerce resources, corporations, foreign governments into policy priorities of US winning AI war with China, resource monopolization; voters want cheaper cost of living, end war, slow AI data center expansion – Chart 5); midterms signal gold>oil, lower yields, tech bonds>tech stocks, consumer stocks>energy, small cap>monopolies, long Europe & long China tech; not as regime-changey as elections of '79/'80 (end of inflation, start of great bond bull) and 2016 (end of globalization, start of commodity bull) but '26 midterms = peak AI equity concentration (Chart 7).

No AI capex cut: AI hyperscaler numbers all v well known now…

- capex $239bn in '24, $412bn in '25, $820bn in '26, $1.3tn in '27 (Chart 8),
- FCF $239bn in '24, $191bn in '25, -$63bn in '26, -$252bn in '27
- global debt issuance: $20bn in '24, $110bn in '25, $297bn YTD
- US debt issuance: $20bn in '24, $90bn in '25, $217bn YTD
- equity issuance: $3bn in '24, $4bn in '25, $100bn YTD
- stock buybacks: $100bn in '24, $90bn in '25, $14bn YTD annualized.

Bond/credit markets want AI capex & issuance momentum to slow (why slower capex, slower cash burn means MAGS "spenders" outperform AI "builders" like semis, neoclouds…); once bond yields reset lower and no recession then AI stocks come back in vogue but AI data center buildout at slower pace with more regulations/taxes; data centers electorally unpopular (Chart 6); many incoming DEM Governors ran on "stop the data centers" campaigns and are running key AI states…~1400 data centers representing ~50 GW of existing capacity in US today, expectation is ~100 GW new capacity comes online next 2 years (per SemiAnalysis)…note Texas accounts for 30% of anticipated 60+ GW yet to break ground in '28…means AI capex forecast for '28 ~$2tn a little too high.

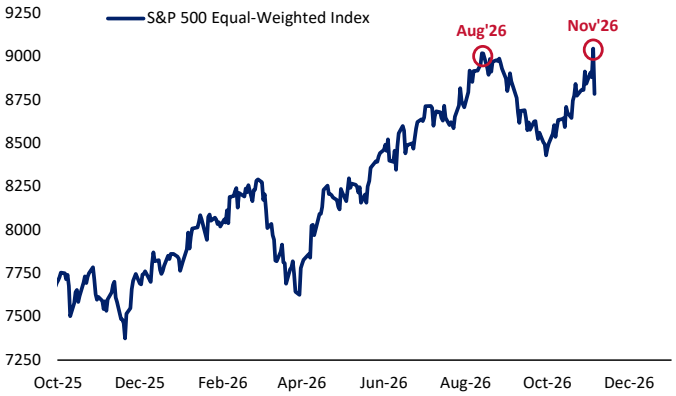

"No Fed hike": Fed raised rates Sep 16th, expected to hike again Dec 9th (64% probability) with cluster of hikes from other central banks in Dec…ECB (76%) & BOE (50%) on Dec 17th, BOJ (68%) on Dec 18th; seen 55 rate hikes this year, just 11 were expected back in Jan; pretty simple, if inflation can drop and allow tightening cycle to end before credit event/recession, then '27 scenario stays goldilocks bullish breadth; we just think oil needs to fall sharply first (Lula ends Monroe doctrine, high oil didn't cause China to fold, what US & European electorates want)…sell energy, buy consumer.

"No landing": 2027 scenarios are bubble, breadth, bust; case for bubble is AI = railroads, US govt backstop of AI (higher stocks/bonds = how US wins over China in AI war), Gen Z/Gen X structural buy-the-dip ethos; case for breadth = consensus forecasting 40bps drop in UST yields & 15% SPX EPS growth in '27, Goldilocks unlocks value in small/mid-caps, SPX ex. AI; case for bust = bonds/voters end booms/bubbles, credit tightening means no AI boom; downward revisions to '27 forecasts of 5% US nominal GDP, 45% global tech EPS (after 94% in '26 – Chart 9) coming; we say consensus conviction in bubble (50% of investors in BofA Oct FMS predicted "no landing") has peaked, but optimism on breadth still high (40% predicted "soft landing"), fear of "hard landing" bust (6% in Oct FMS) too low (all the incoming FAQs are "should I add risk now?" not "is this the big top?")...we say sell oil, buy bonds, wait for lower oil prices & yields before adding risk bigtime.

BofA GLOBAL RESEARCH

Disclaimer: The indicators identified above as the BofA Bull & Bear Indicator, MVP Model, BofA Global Breadth Rule, BofA EM Flow Trading Rule, BofA Global Flow Trading Rule, BofA Global FMS Macro Indicator, BofA Global FMS Cash Rule, Global Wave, Sell-Side Indicator, and Global Financial Stress Indicator are intended to be indicative metrics only and may not be used for reference purposes or as a measure of performance for any financial instrument or contract, or otherwise relied upon by third parties for any other purpose, without the prior written consent of BofA Global Research. These indicators were not created to act as a benchmark.
The analysis of the BofA Bull & Bear Indicator in this report is back-tested and does not represent the actual performance of any account or fund. Back-tested performance depicts the hypothetical back-tested performance of a particular strategy over the time period indicated. In future periods, market and economic conditions will differ and the same strategy will not necessarily produce the same results. No representation is being made that any actual portfolio is likely to have achieved returns similar to those shown herein. In fact, there are frequently sharp differences between back-tested returns and the actual results realized in the actual management of a portfolio. Back-tested performance results are created by applying an investment strategy or methodology to historical data and attempts to give an indication as to how a strategy might have performed during a certain period in the past if the product had been in existence during such time. Back-tested results have inherent limitations including the fact that they are calculated with the full benefit of hindsight, which allows the security selection methodology to be adjusted to maximize the returns. Further, the results shown do not reflect actual trading or the impact that material economic and market factors might have had on a portfolio manager's decision-making under actual circumstances. Back-tested returns do not reflect advisory fees, trading costs, or other fees or expenses.
